Please complete the following essay questions.

We are always looking for ways to increase our membership and to have our current members use us as their “Primary Financial Institution”. Your “Primary Financial Institution” is where you have your main account and processes all of your transactions from.

- 1) What is it that you like about the financial institution you have your checking account at?
- 2) What would you like the financial institution to change about their checking account product?
- 3) What is the most valuable product Pennstar offers its younger members?
- 4) What makes the Credit Union different from a Bank?
